If I Can Let You Go
from The Autumn Sonnets

May Sarton, poem

Soprano

\( \text{S} \) = 100

If I can let you go as trees let go their leaves, so cas-u’ly one by one;

Piano

Solo Cello

allargando
If I Can Let You Go

I can come to know what they do know.... that fall is the release, the con-

sum-a-

tion,
If I Can Let You Go

Then fear of time and the uncertain fruit

if I can let you go

would not distemper the lucid skies, this strangest autumn,