Sic Transit Gloria Mundi

Translation: Glory, glory, glory!  * "Thus passes the glory of this world"......Remember, man, that you are dust, and unto dust you shall return."

This text was said three times by a barefoot monk at the installation of a Pope. It reminds him that the glory of the day's celebration will pass, and that he will die as all of us will die.

June, 2007
Gloria, Gloria, Gloria, Gloria,
Gloria, Gloria, Gloria, Gloria,
Gloria, Gloria, Gloria, Gloria,