YELLOW
A Response to Gerard

Nancy Lind

Mezzo-Soprano

Spoken: Hopkins said it all: "Nothing is so beautiful as Spring." - - - - - So why

Mary Ann Joyce-Walter

Piano

Spoken: Hopkins said it all: "Nothing is so beautiful as Spring." - - - - - So why

Copyright 2009
Mezzo

of the forsythia bush, the big Cray-ola box of tulips in a row, the Pno.

Mezzo

pink of the Japanese cherry tree, feminine and translucent,

Pno.

The Platonic essence of white on the Bradford pears, The two-colored dogwood's shedding petals, sending beauty on a breeze, The tiny lime-green early willow leaves, so serene

allarg. \( \text{mf} \)

perusal copy

perusal copy
and expectant, the lilac tint of wisteria color ing a gray wall climbing, always

Be cause, dear Gerard, light-hearted!